

That's Tv Manchester News

News report from NWCC Awards Night.

Car Enthusiasts Raise Over Two Grand For A Local Hospice

Each year, members of one Classic car group aim to raise as much money as possible for a local charity. During 2018, North West casual classics raised funds for the warrington based St Rocco's hospice, and on tuesday night at their annual awards ceremony, they handed over a cheque for just over two thousand and twelve pounds to the charity.

Posted by That's TV Manchester on Wednesday, 13 February 2019