

Matilda

My 1926 Morris Cowley "Flatfront" 5 seat colonial tourer. One of the first flatfronts off the production line after the re-design from the Bullnose. Exported to NSW Australia as a chassis and drive train where a bespoke body was built by Holdens of NSW later to become part of the General Motors group.