

The John Holt Cancer Support Foundation

NWCC Chosen Charity 2019

is

John Holt Cancer Support Foundation

NWCC Chosen Charity 2019 is John Holt Cancer Support Foundation

Is a foundation as a home from home where people come to gain the support they need to deal with the effects of cancer.

Founder Chris, knows first hand the effects of cancer and believes she would have benefited from a place such as this, that is why she decided to open Warringtons first voluntary cancer support centre here in the town centre

John Holt have a drop in morning on Fridays This is regarded as more of a social event, they have a variety of activities allowing you to talk to others that have been through a similar journey as yourself and gain important information and support.

For more information please see their website <http://jhcancersupport.com/>

That's TV news report by Chris Stott BA (hons)

Support For Those Affected By Cancer

Having lost three family members within a year to cancer, Chris Holt soon realised there wasn't enough support for people like her. To make sure others in her situation wouldn't feel the same way, she set up the John Holt Cancer Support foundation in Warrington, to provide help and guidance to people living with cancer, as well as those who have lost loved ones. The support they offer has become extremely vital to those who need it.

Posted by That's TV Manchester on Tuesday, 19 February 2019

John Holt Cancer Support